COOKIE POLICY

Effective June 2020

Trident Ventures ("we", "our") use cookies on www.tridentdigitech.com and a number of other websites that are powered by our technology (collectively, the "Websites"; individually, the "Site"). By using any of the Websites, you consent to the use of cookies.

Our Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, what they do, how Trident Ventures uses cookies, and your choices regarding cookies.

1. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small pieces of text that are store on your computer or other device by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the website or others. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows Trident Ventures or a third party to recognize you, make your next visit easier, and make the Site more useful to you. The entity that places cookies on your browser can then read the information on the cookie that it set.

Cookies are typically classified as either "session cookies" or "persistent cookies." Session cookies do not stay on your device after you close your browser. Persistent cookies will remain on your device until you delete them or they expire.

For more information about cookies, you can visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

2. HOW TRIDENT VENTURES USES COOKIES

Cookies are used on the Websites to enable certain functions of the Site, provide analytics, improve your user experience, optimize advertising and marketing, and recognize you as a customer.

A. Essential Cookies - Essential Cookies are necessary for the Websites to function and cannot be disabled. These cookies are essential for enabling user movement around the Websites and providing access to features of the Websites. These cookies do not gather information about you that could be used for marketing purposes, do not remember where you have been on the internet, and do not store any personally identifiable information. If you set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, some parts of the Websites will not work.

B. Analytics Cookies - The Websites use Google Analytics cookies to collect information about how visitors use the Websites. These cookies collect aggregated anonymous data which is transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. You can learn how Google collects and processes data by visiting the following website: www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/ If you would like to opt-out of the collection of data by Google Analytics, visit https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/

C. Targeting / Remarketing Cookies - Targeting Cookies may be set through the Websites by our advertising partners, such as Facebook and Google, and are used by those third parties to build a profile of your interests, show you relevant advertisements on other sites, and engage in behavioral advertising. If you choose to not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising.
